

FACIAL REJUVENATION ACUPUNCTURE

What is Facial Rejuvenation Acupuncture?

Facial Rejuvenation Acupuncture is the gentle placement of tiny, thin needles into the body and face to bring out your most radiant, natural beauty. It works by rebalancing the body to a state of health, which in turn, reflects on the face. The only side effects tend to be better sleep, increased energy, decreased stress and improved digestion.

What are the benefits of the Facial Rejuvenation Series?

- improved muscle and skin tone
- increases collagen production
- helps to eliminate and reduce bags under the eyes
- decreases tendency toward sagging and jowls
- helps to eliminate puffiness by improving metabolism, and thus eliminating excess fluids
- helps to eliminate fine lines of the face and has a diminishing effect on larger wrinkles
- improves hormonal balance; therefore treats hormonal acne
- moisturizes the skin by the increased local circulation of blood and lymph to the face
- improves facial color
- reduces or eliminates double chins
- tightens the pores
- brightens the eyes
- helps to lift drooping eyelids
- reduces stress evident in the face
- promotes overall health and well being
- brings out a person's innate beauty and radiance
- slow the aging process, from within

A 1996 report in the International Journal of Clinical Acupuncture reported that among 300 cases treated with Cosmetic Acupuncture, 90% had marked effects with one course of treatment. The effects included a more delicate skin appearance, improvement of elasticity of facial muscles, ruddier complexion, and overall rejuvenation
